

Do you need help managing your money or accessing public programs because of COVID-19?

The Mayor's Office of Financial Empowerment is providing free help, over the phone! The COVID-19 pandemic has had a major impact on Boston residents' finances, and the Mayor's Office of Financial Empowerment's new Financial Navigators program is here to help.

Financial Navigators will help you with:

- 💰 Meeting daily living expenses (food, housing, insurance)
- 💰 Maximize income (emergency loans and cash assistance)
- 💰 Managing debt (credit cards, student loans, child support)
- 💰 Avoiding predatory scams
- 💰 Budgeting

During the session, your Financial Navigator will work with you to identify next steps, and email them to you. Still have questions? You can sign up for another free appointment (although it may be with a different Navigator).

Please note - Financial Navigators do not provide financial assistance
